A REAL OFAC CASE

The answer was in their own files.

The screening never saw it. It cost $466,200.

swipe →

SAYARI

2010 · THE QUESTIONNAIRE

A client form names the company's only owner.

Client questionnaire · Medallion, Inc. (Panama)

Sole shareholder: Viktor Vekselberg

It goes into the file. The file goes into a folder.

APRIL 2018 · THE DESIGNATION

The owner is sanctioned. Under the 50% rule, his company is blocked too.

Viktor Vekselberg

• sanctioned · April 2018

↓ owns 100%

Medallion, Inc. (Panama)

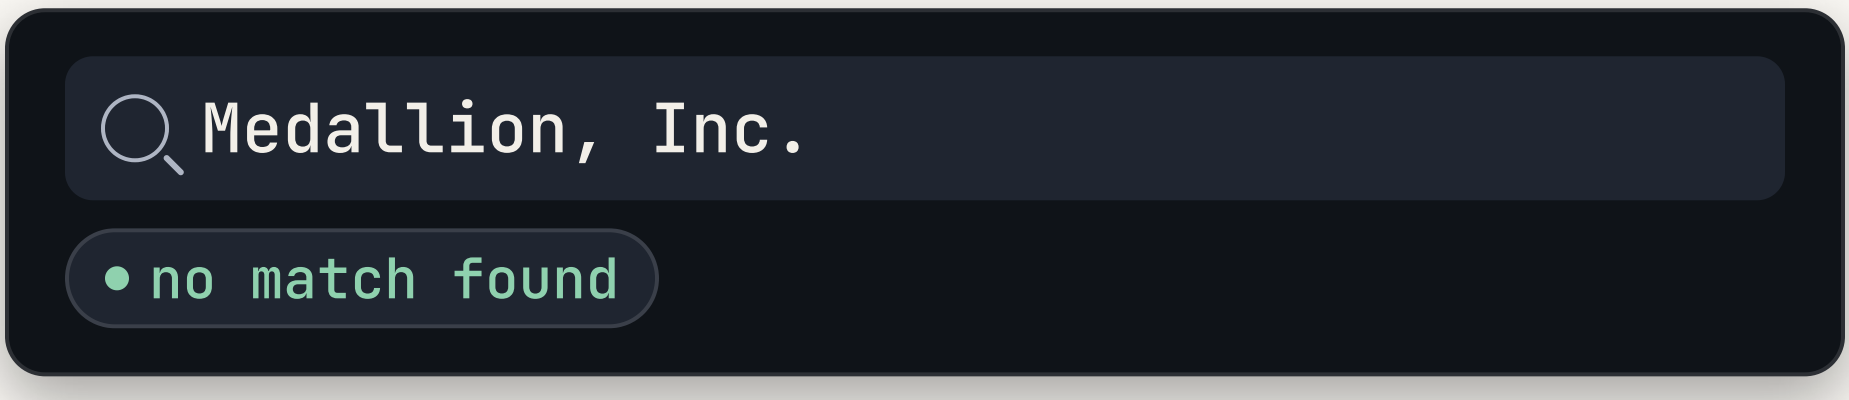

• blocked too · 50% rule

Its own name? Not on any list.

SAYARI

2018 – 2020 · THE SCREEN

The screening checks the name. The name is clean.

Four insurance policies keep running. 39 violations by July 2020.

DECEMBER 2023 · THE RECEIPT

$466,200

OFAC settlement. 39 violations across four policies, for a name that sat in a folder.

source: OFAC enforcement release, 21 Dec 2023

A name search tells you if the name is on a list. It doesn't tell you who owns it.

Where does ownership info live at your company: in the screening, or in a folder?